JEN Program Cover Design Contest

Calling all art students to participate in our Annual Conference Program Cover Design Contest! Calling all directors/educators to encourage talented arts students to enter.

A deserving high school or college art student has his/her artwork chosen to be featured as the cover art for the conference program. Program established 2010. Applications available online until closed.

PRIZE INFORMATION: First place-published as cover of Conference Program Book and $200 cash prize.

The THEME is JAZZ! Design a program cover that embraces the spirit of jazz. Jazz music is all about improvisation, collaboration, individualism, and flexible rhythmic structures.

Typical jazz instruments are the saxophone, trumpet, trombone, clarinet, flute, piano, guitar, double bass, tuba, drums, vocals, vibraphone and the banjo. The design program cover is a celebration of jazz music and should be your interpretation. Check out the cover designs for past year's Conference Programs at the link provided below.
